Dear Colleagues,

We would like you to contribute to the success of this meeting between different scientific communities in seeking to create a synergy between engineering models (requiring advanced Multiphysics/multiscale) and statistical models (requiring Machine learning) – for more details, visit the website: <https://ceacm.net/s4ml-2024/>.

We can start a Mini-Symposium with at least four lectures (one keynote and three standard lectures) on any topic that fits broad fields of engineering science and applied mathematics.

In order to apply, please send your name, e-mail address, the title and a short description of your MS proposal (MS or PDF files) by e-mail to ceacm@ceacm.net

Looking forward to hearing from you, and welcome you in Prague
